Leadership Seminar Proposal Overview

Who is the seminar for?

These seminars are for undergraduate students with an interest in self-improvement or leadership; most students are enrolled in the Student Leadership Development Series or are involved in another organization that requires attendance.

What should the seminar focus on?

Because we are the Center for Leadership Learning, we want topics related to leadership development, like the concepts covered in your GSM coursework. Your topic should be important for undergraduate students to learn and should help them to develop into more effective leaders. The best seminars excite students with engaging hands-on activities and leave them with useful tools that they can apply to their lives right now and in the future. If you have questions or would like to discuss your topic with us, please contact Christie Navarro at cdnavarro@ucdavis.edu or (530) 752-6908.

Where will the seminars be hosted?

Most SLDS seminars take place in The Colleges at La Rue Community Center, in Building 180. It's a large space with an overhead projector for PowerPoint presentations or DVD viewing, a whiteboard, a chalkboard, and easels, as well as tables and chairs that can be arranged to your preference.

When will the seminars take place?

We accept applications on a continuous basis and the quarter you implement your seminar depends on when you submit your proposal. Please see current proposal deadlines at <http://ccl.ucdavis.edu> or contact Program Manager, Christie Navarro at (530) 752.6908 or at cdnavarro@ucdavis.edu.

Why should I take this opportunity?

Aside from the obvious benefits of a $250 honorarium, you can learn a great deal by teaching others and this is a great opportunity to enhance your own resume and professional portfolio.

How do I get started on my seminar?

Download a 2009-2010 Leadership Seminar Proposal Form at the Center for Leadership Learning website, <http://ccl.ucdavis.edu>, or contact Christie Navarro, Program Manager, at cdnavarro@ucdavis.edu or 530-752-6908. A list of specific questions is included in the form; these questions will serve as the ultimate guidelines for your seminar outline.
