Leadership Essentials Workshop Series

Winter 2020 Workshop Calendar

Balancing Your Plate*

People often have varied responsibilities that compete with one another, are overwhelming, and impact the quality of decisions. For a leader to be effective, it is necessary to find balance between each of their pursuits. In this workshop, you will learn to set priorities, strategize a time management plan, and practice self-care.

Monday, January 13
5:10 - 7:00p

Global Perspectives*

As we live in a continuously globalized environment, awareness and acknowledgement of cultural difference is vital to effective leadership. Participants in this workshop will develop the foundations that are important to understanding and adapting to the diverse climates and situations in which they will encounter throughout their lives. This workshop was developed by UC Davis Global Affairs as part of a collaborative initiative with CLL.

Thursday, January 23
4:40-6:30p

Group Development

Group work is something you will encounter throughout college and beyond. When working with others, it is helpful to have a solid understanding of how groups form, operate, and change. In this workshop, you will learn how to establish productive relationships and foster teamwork within your group.

Thursday, January 30 Monday, February 10
4:40 - 6:30p 5:10-7:00p

Conflict Management

Conflicts are often seen in a negative light, but when viewed through a different lens, they can become opportunities for change and growth. In this workshop, you will learn to recognize multiple forms and factors of conflict and practice different approaches of conflict management.

Thursday, February 13 Monday, March 9
4:40 - 6:30p 5:10 - 7:00p

Workshops are held in 1310 The Grove. No advance registration is necessary. Students must arrive on time and stay for the entire duration. Early arrival is encouraged as space is limited.

* Workshop is not a prerequisite for the Student Leadership Development Program (SLDP)

Ethics and Trust*

Every decision a person makes is guided by their own set of ethics. In this workshop, you will explore ethics as a framework for decision-making, clarify your own ethical principles, understand the importance of integrity within organizations, and learn ways to build individual trust.

Thursday, January 16
4:40 - 6:30p

Foundations of Leadership

Leadership is more than title and position, telling others what to do, or having authority and power. Rather, it is a process of collaborating with others to create positive change. This workshop will help you deconstruct outdated ways of thinking about leadership and highlight practices needed to address complex problems for a complex world.

Monday, January 27 Thursday, February 27
5:10-7:00p 4:40 - 6:30p

Self-Awareness

Each person brings individual qualities, experiences and values when engaging in leadership, and understanding of these aspects of yourself is essential. In this workshop, you will explore how self-knowledge impacts your goals as a leader and helps you navigate interactions with others.

Monday, February 3 Thursday, March 5
5:10 - 7:00p 4:40 - 6:30p

Communication

Communication is multidimensional and involves more than just talking. Awareness of what is communicated beyond words is essential. This workshop will help you learn techniques to use within multiple contexts, develop an awareness of communicating across difference, and employ active listening skills.

Thursday, February 20 Monday, February 24
4:40 - 6:30p 5:10 - 7:00p

Dimensions of Diversity

To effectively collaborate, we need to understand and learn from others who embody different identities, experiences, and beliefs. This workshop will help you explore social identities, ways in which difference impacts how we interact with others, and the concepts of power, privilege and oppression.

Monday, March 2 Thursday, March 12
5:10 - 7:00p 4:40 - 6:30p
