Internship Description:

This position is a 3-quarter commitment and open to undergraduate students who do not hold another paid campus employment position. DACA and work-study eligible students and international students are encouraged to apply. CLL is preparing to be in-person for AY 2023-2024 pending campus approval, however applicants should be open and willing for a hybrid model of both remote and in-person work.

Under the supervision and direction of the Center for Leadership Learning (CLL) Director, the Communications – Social Media and Photography Intern develops and coordinates all electronic marketing and promotion, photography, and videography on behalf of the CLL. The CLL is a special academic program designed to provide leadership education and professional development opportunities for undergraduate students.

Internship Duties

Communications – Social Media and Photography Intern duties include, but are not limited to:

1. Creating and maintaining regular and consistent presence on a variety of social media platforms, with specific emphasis on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Discord, and LinkedIn, utilizing photography.
2. Capturing digital imagery that reflects the purpose and mission of the CLL. Imagery is collected via spontaneous photography during quarterly workshops and special events in addition to staged photo-ops to build marketing archives and to create promotional print materials. Photography is also utilized to promote CLL services, document CLL events, and highlight the impact CLL has on students' learning and development.
3. Maintaining photo and video archives of CLL activities and work actively to update imagery and video downloads on the CLL website and other social media platforms.

4. Assisting with scheduling and maintaining regular and consistent campus-wide promotion of the CLL's services and activities via display boards, TV/LCD ads, and departmental email listservs and social media channels.
5. Assisting in maintenance CLL database by uploading social media analytics and review quantitative and qualitative data regularly to help highlight and emphasize the impact CLL programs have on students.
6. Collaborating with Communications Interns and entire CLL staff to create innovative marketing strategies to increase awareness of the Center for Leadership Learning among the campus community, with special emphasis on undergraduates.
7. Actively seek opportunities to educate targeted student populations, organizations, clubs, and campus programs and academic departments about the CLL and its services.
8. Actively collaborate with Undergraduate Education Communications team to develop cohesive messaging and branding for the CLL.

General Duties

General program and office duties include, but are not limited to:

1. Delivering and facilitating program information sessions for the undergraduate community, with specific concentration on student academic clubs, organizations, and other student services units. Participating in seasonal tabling events to help promote the CLL, such as, but not limited to Fall Welcome events, Decision Day events, and CLL-specific events.
1. Maintaining knowledge and understanding of CLL's certificate-bearing programs – the Cultivating Leaders for Social Change (CLSC) program and the Student Leadership Development Program (SLDP) – along with any other programs and events introduced through the academic year.
2. Helping maintain regular, consistent, and professional communication with active participants and prospective students regarding quarterly workshops, development programs, upcoming events, and any other program announcements via print, electronic and social media communications.
3. Advising active and potential student participants on certificate-bearing program requirements and other events and services offered through the year.
4. Providing administrative support including: monitoring student program registration and workshop participation, and various aspects of program planning as needed. Helping with general office duties such as front-desk reception and customer service, answering phones, filing, making photocopies, retrieving daily mail, monitoring supply inventory, and other duties as assigned.
5. Supporting CLL's marketing and recruitment efforts by providing feedback on marketing materials and other publicity items and actively seeking and creating opportunities to promote and educate the campus community about the CLL and helping recruit students to participate in the leadership and professional development programs offered by the CLL.
