Leadership Essentials Workshop Series
Learn to Lead. Lead with Purpose.

Build your foundational framework of leadership practices!
The LEWS consists of topical workshops related to leadership. Take as few or as many as you would like to best address your interests and goals.

Why attend?
• Invest in your leadership skills and knowledge
• Boost your confidence in internships, student groups, classes, and personal life
• Build peer and mentor connections
• Engage in fun and educationally rewarding activities

About the workshops
• Workshops are open and free of charge to all UC Davis undergraduate students
• Winter 2022 workshops are offered in person at 1310 The Grove
• Most workshops serve as a starting point and prerequisite for the optional Student Leadership Development Program (SLDP) and/or Diversity Leadership Development Program (DLDP)

About the CLL
The Center for Leadership Learning (CLL) is a free resource to all undergraduate students that offers a unique space for them to engage in the study of leadership through a variety of fun and interactive programs.

Out of respect to our facilitators and other participants, our policy is that students must arrive on time and stay for the full workshop.

We follow all campus and CDC guidelines as our minimum safety procedures; the website https://campusready.ucdavis.edu is an excellent resource for information and updates. At this time, face coverings are required inside for everyone regardless of vaccination status. Eating is not allowed in classrooms, hallways, lobbies, or other public areas except for removing a mask to take a quick drink.

Stay home if you are sick! Be ready to show your approval message that you are cleared to access UC Davis campus sites. Workshops are offered multiple times throughout each year. Please prioritize your health and the health of others.

We are best reached by email: cll@ucdavis.edu
